PREPARE FOR THE NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL!

As the Church in the United States journeys through a multi-year National Eucharistic Revival, LTP stands by our mission in promoting the liturgical formation of the faithful so that all may “become thoroughly imbued with the spirit and power of the liturgy.” (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 14)

As parishes enter the Year of Parish Revival, LTP has resources to support your efforts to help parishioners as they seek a stronger relationship with Christ in the Eucharist. Our new book, Encountering the Real Presence of Christ, explores the many ways we encounter Christ, most especially in the Eucharist. We have many other resources that break open the richness of the Mass and how our encounters with Christ at the liturgy shape our lives. Consistent with our mission and history, LTP is offering formation sessions—virtual and in-person—that further explore the Mass and its primary place in our lives. You can read more about our training opportunities on page 9.

Whether you provide a booklet for your parishioners or offer a training event—or both—the Eucharistic Revival gives us the opportunity to draw Catholics closer to Christ through the Eucharistic Liturgy.

Encountering the Real Presence of Christ

Jeanne Marie Miles

Belief in the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of the Eucharist has always been the heart of our Catholic faith. Participating at Mass and receiving the Lord’s Body and Blood in holy Communion is the most important thing we do each week as Catholic Christians. Christ’s presence is so great and wondrous that we encounter it in multiple ways. Based on the teachings of the Second Vatican Council, this booklet explores the many presences of Christ as experienced in the liturgy: in the gathered assembly, the minister, the proclaimed Word and, most especially, the Eucharist. This resource also reflects upon Christ’s presence in the Body of Christ, the Church, called forth from the liturgy as a sign of his presence in the world.

From Mass to Mission

Understanding the Mass and Its Significance for Our Christian Life

Trish Sullivan Vanni, Paul Turner

This resource is an insightful exploration of the Mass and its importance for our life of faith and Christian discipleship. Each chapter explores the parts of the Mass, helping you understand the meaning of the prayers, responses, acclamations, gestures, signs, and symbols. From Mass to Mission will inspire you to participate more fully in the Mass and to carry out your mission as Christ’s disciple, bringing forth his light to a world in need.

Beyond the Manger

A Christmas Devotional

Robert J. Daly, SJ

Through prayerful and imaginative stories, this Christmas devotional will help you enter into Christmas Time with fresh eyes and an open heart. You will hear the imagined voices of familiar Christmas characters, like Mary and Joseph, the innkeeper, and one of the Magi, as well as the voices of other people who might have been at that miraculous event of Jesus' birth or met him later in life. Each story invites you to encounter the transformative power of Christ's presence and will move you beyond the manger and familiar stories of Christmas Time, into a spiritual oasis amid the hustle and bustle of the Christmas season. Starting on Christmas Day and lasting through the first week or two of January, this devotional encourages you to open your heart and mind in holy, prayerful imagination and let the Holy Spirit lead you to new encounters with Jesus.

Mary and the Liturgical Year

A Pastoral Resource

Katharine E. Harmon

In Mary and the Liturgical Year: A Pastoral Resource, liturgical scholar and professor Katharine E. Harmon offers an engaging survey of Mary's role in the Church's liturgical prayer from the first days of the early Church to our own day. In this unique resource, Harmon examines the twelve prominent Marian solemnities, feasts, and memorials celebrated throughout the liturgical year. Pastoral ministers, theology students, and persons seeking to reflect on Mary as a source of wisdom and faith will discover the riches of Marian theology and will come to understand how Mary always leads us to a deeper and more intimate relationship with her son, Jesus.

Vida en la vid

El camino de gozo continúa

Rebekah Francisco Rojcewicz

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is an approach to the religious formation of children that is grounded in an understanding and appreciation of the child's relationship with God through their engagement with Scripture and liturgy. Now available in Spanish, this companion to The Religious Potential of the Child 6–12 years old documents the decades of work and the journeys that catechists and older children, six to twelve years old, have made with Jesus the True Vine. For parents, catechists, and those who seek to take seriously Jesus' challenge "to change and become like children" (Matthew 18:3), this book serves as an invitation to the same joyful journey.

The Order of Penance

Ritual Edition

International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation

LTP's edition of the Order of Penance displays the ritual and Scriptural texts with dignity and clarity for those who proclaim them and those who listen to them. The design eliminates page turns wherever possible, and the use of two colors differentiates rubrics from what is to be proclaimed.

Features include

- two ribbon markers bound into the book
- acid-free paper to prevent discoloration over time
- pagination designed to reduce disrupting page breaks

The design and layout represent an effort by Liturgy Training Publications to provide ministers with a dignified ritual book that helps reconcile Christians with God and with each other. Printed and bound in the United States of America.

Preparing for Confession, Revised Edition

Receiving God's Mercy

Paul Turner

Catholics celebrate God's mercy most richly by participating in the sacrament of reconciliation. This portable booklet helps one prepare a thoughtful, deeply felt confession and to experience the loving mercy of God in this sacrament of healing. This revised edition includes Scripture reflections on God's forgiveness, examinations of conscience, and a walk through the newly revised Order of Penance. Whether you prefer to approach the sacrament during your parish's weekly scheduled times or through individual confession in the midst of a communal reconciliation service, this insightful and spiritually engaging booklet will open you to the richness and power of the sacrament of penance and reconciliation.

Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry

Robert Valle

In Guide for Forming a Parish Bereavement Ministry, author Robert Valle guides parish leaders toward creating a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church's official funeral rites. He explains the theology and key pastoral insights of the Order of Christian Funerals (OCF) and outlines the phases of bereavement ministry, from accompanying the bereaved at the time of death to the preparation of the funeral liturgies, then home visits and acts of compassion throughout the following year. This resource provides practical advice and downloadable materials for training ministers in the theological, spiritual, and human dimensions essential for effective bereavement ministry. Contributing author Paula Kosin provides scripts and other editable downloads for facilitating a grief support group.

An Introduction to Bereavement Ministry

Caring for Those Who Mourn

Corinna Laughlin

This resource presents a bereavement ministry that flows from the liturgical and pastoral vision of the Church's official funeral rites and ensures that all ministers—ordained, lay professional staff, and volunteer ministers—are working out of a shared understanding of that vision. In pastoral and engaging prose, author Corinna Laughlin unfolds the Church's theology of Christian death, the paschal mystery, the communion of saints, and the healing power of the rites. This book addresses ministry with the dying and with the bereaved at the time of death and presents the range of pastoral services the parish and its bereavement team can offer, both in the early days and throughout the year following a death.

Grieving

A Spiritual Process for Catholics

Paula Kosin

In Grieving: A Spiritual Process for Catholics, Paula Kosin has combined deep wisdom from the Christian tradition with current insights from the social sciences to create a book that can be an effective companion for grievers—Catholic and non-Catholic alike. With a deeply compassionate, calm, and steady approach, Kosin joins readers to help them bear the unbearable and encourages them as they grasp for ways to weather the storm of their grief. Her book provides helpful insights and information about human patterns of grieving and recommends concrete practices to support their process such as journaling, mindfulness meditation, prayer, and nature therapy.

The Gospels

New Revised Standard Version, Updated Edition

The Gospels is specifically designed for children to encourage them to come to know Jesus and to foster their love of Scripture. Included are the first four books of the New Testament, written by the evangelists Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, and selected verses from the Psalms, Isaiah, the Acts of the Apostles, and Revelation. This book is an ideal gift for children preparing for or who have celebrated first Communion or confirmation, or those who are on a journey towards Christian Initiation. It includes easy-to-read text and full-page layouts to help children hone their reading skills, embellished initial caps and numerals to help children identify the beginnings of each chapter, images of the evangelists, and visual representations of the land and places of Jesus' time.

Present for God's Call

An Overview of the Rites of Institution and Ordination

Paul Turner

In Present for God's Call, Fr. Paul Turner provides the historical evolution of the rites of institution and ordination as well as a pastoral overview of the current Latin texts and English translations of these rites. This book is a timely and important liturgical study on the vocational and ministerial roles in the Church—especially for women, who are now permitted to serve as instituted lectors, acolytes, and catechists. Unique to Fr. Turner's study is the emphasis on the faithful's role in the rites of institution and ordination. The ritual book for ordination ceremonies expects that the assembly be prepared and that they fully participate in these rites. The entire local Church is called to prepare to take part in these rites, and this book provides one way for this formation to take place.

Following God's Pedagogy

Principles for Children's Catechesis

Sister Mary Michael Fox, OP

Solid formation is not only about teaching doctrine, but also, and more importantly, about forming disciples who have encountered and know Christ. In Following God's Pedagogy, Sister Mary Michael Fox, OP, brings decades of experience in catechesis to offer a unique and proven model for children's catechesis. She draws upon her deep catechetical experience and thorough research into the nature of the child, divine revelation, and catechetical methodology. She offers timely insight into how the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd offers an approach to children's catechesis that forms the mind and heart of the child, leading them into a deeper relationship with Christ and a life of discipleship.

“He now anoints you . . . so that you may remain members of Christ, Priest, Prophet and King”
(Order of Baptism of Children, 62).

When we are baptized, we are anointed as priest, prophet, and king.

When we are baptized, we are united in a ministry of service with Christ.

When we understand and embrace our role as a baptized member of the community, the Church will be renewed.

In the Anointed series, Liturgy Training Publications offers resources to assist the parish as they develop a deeper understanding of what it means to be Church. The series not only helps parishioners comprehend the meaning of their baptism but shows parish leadership how to animate the priestly service of the faithful. We hope this new series will form and transform your parish community to live as priest, prophet, and king in the world today.

Year of Grace 2024

Tracy Rodenborn · Sally Wern Comport (Artist)

This 2024 calendar presents the storytelling art of Sally Wern Comport. Her illustrations of five conversion stories—five transformative encounters with Jesus—call us to reflect more deeply on our own ongoing conversion to Christ. How are we experiencing Christ's call in this moment of life? The pictures also invite us to learn more about the way the Church welcomes and forms new Catholic Christians through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults.

The Year of Grace 2024 liturgical calendar follows the Sundays of Year B and the weekdays of Year II, beginning December 3, 2023 (the First Sunday of Advent) and ending Saturday, November 30, 2024 (the last day of the liturgical year).

LTP's circular display of the liturgical year makes its key features easily understandable. We can see at a glance the liturgical seasons in their characteristic colors, Sundays on the outer rim, and the days and weeks radiating from the center.

Use the Year of Grace calendar in many ways:

- Give one to every household in the parish and school.
- Hang one in every classroom, meeting room, and in the church vestibule to teach about the liturgical year.
- Assign students to report on specific liturgical days.
- Present calendars to first communicants and confirmation candidates.
