Preparing for Confession for Children

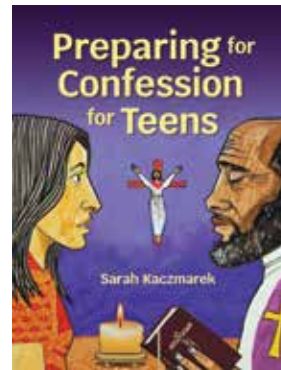

Receiving God's Mercy
Kara O'Malley

Designed specifically for children who will celebrate the sacrament for the first time, Preparing for Confession for Children: Receiving God's Mercy will help young people get ready to confess their sins. Scripture passages will help children reflect on God's mercy. They will be guided to examine their conscience, to think about what to confess, and to pray before and after the sacrament. A downloadable pdf is also available to parents who want additional support and catechesis about the sacrament.

The booklet, appropriately sized for small hands, can be brought to confession and is ideal for children in Catholic schools and religious education programs.

Preparing for Confession for Teens

Receiving God's Mercy
Sarah Kaczmarek with contributions from Paul Turner

Help teens prepare to encounter the love and mercy of God through the sacrament of reconciliation with LTP's Preparing for Confession for Teens. Written specifically for middle- and high-school aged youth, this guide focuses on God's desire to bring healing, hope, and freedom through this beautiful sacrament. It includes short scriptural reflections, an age-appropriate examination of conscience, step-by-step instructions for celebrating the sacrament individually or as a part of a communal reconciliation service, and more.

Preparing for Confession for Teens is an excellent resource for youth ministers, directors of religious education, campus ministers, and pastors to have available whenever teens will be invited to celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation.

A Walk through the Mass

Timothy P. O'Malley

A Walk through the Mass will take you on an awe-inspiring journey through the Mass. Each chapter is focused on a particular part of the Mass. Within each chapter, Timothy P. O'Malley provides accessible context for why Catholics pray at Mass in a specific way and provides the meaning behind our postures, movements, and prayers. It will lead you to a greater understanding of the Mass and deepen your relationship with God and all who pray with you. This is the perfect resource for those interested in the Catholic faith, for new Catholics, or for those who need a refresher on our most important prayer.

TIMOTHY P. O'MALLEY is the director of education at the McGrath Institute for Church Life and academic director of the Notre Dame Center for Liturgy. He holds a concurrent appointment in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame.

Your Child's First Reconciliation and First Communion

Paul Turner

With a warm and friendly style, this booklet provides thoughtful, clear answers to the questions parents have about preparing their children to receive the sacraments of reconciliation and Communion for the first time. It includes recommendations for the involvement of godparents, reflections on the meaning of the sacraments, an overview of the rites, and guidance for how and when to receive the sacraments. It also stresses the importance of regularly confessing sins and going to Mass as a family. With questions for reflection, parents will be able to engage with their children about their developing faith and help them participate regularly in the sacramental life of the Church as they mature.

The Real Presence of Christ in the Liturgy and in the World

Anne Y. Koester

Often when we think of Christ's presence in the liturgy, we think of his risen presence in the sacrament of the Eucharist. Sacrosanctum concilium, the first document of the Second Vatican Council, presents the four-fold presence of Christ in the liturgy as well as in the Body of Christ, the Church. This resource explores these modes of Christ's presence and calls us to deepen our understanding and experience of how Christ is present to us both in the liturgy and in the world. With biblical and theological foundations, it provides an opportunity for Catholics to engage with the symbols of the liturgy so as to deepen their relationship with God and with each other.

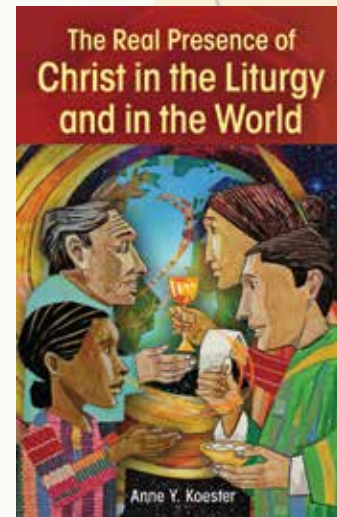

ANNE Y. KOESTER works at Georgetown University, Washington, DC, where she is also an adjunct instructor with the theology department. In addition, she oversees the Christian initiation process at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in DC. A former trial lawyer, Anne studied theology at St. John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota. Anne is the author of many pastoral and academic resources on the liturgy.

Waiting on the Beloved

The Eucharist as Self-Giving Love

Joyce Ann Zimmerman CPPS

In Waiting on the Beloved: The Eucharist as Self-Giving Love, celebrated author and teacher, Joyce Ann Zimmerman, CPPS, invites readers to "contemplate God's unfailing and abiding love" (from the preface). Through thought-provoking reflections, readers are drawn into quiet communion with the Beloved, where we become aware that our waiting "is a matter of waiting on ourselves to become ever more deeply aware, responsive, self-emptying, self-giving, seeking, yearning, and expecting" (preface).

The first three chapters survey God's unfathomable love for us, and the last three chapters shift to us and what we do with this gift of divine love. While words are inadequate to express God's love for us and our love for God, the Eucharist is at the heart of Divine love and is the ultimate expression of God's self-giving love. This book is for anyone seeking to seriously encounter the Beloved in prayer and reflection, and anyone who desires to come to a deeper union with Christ in the Eucharist.

Para comprender los sacramentos de curación

Una perspectiva basada en sus ritos

Randy Stice

Understanding the Sacraments of Healing: A Rite-Based Approach offers insightful catechesis on the sacraments of Penance and Anointing of the Sick based on the methodology presented in Sacramentum Caritatis. Examining each of the rites' Old Testament foundations, liturgical history, and sacramental theology, this book explores the connection between the sacraments of initiation and daily Christian life.

This resource would be of interest to directors of religious education, liturgists, seminarians, deacon formation programs, and continuing adult formation programs.

Vida en la vid

El camino de gozo continúa

Rebekah Francisco Rojcewicz

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is an approach to the religious formation of children that is grounded in an understanding and appreciation of the child's relationship with God through their engagement with Scripture and liturgy. In this companion to The Religious Potential of the Child 6-12 Years Old, author Rebekah Rojcewicz documents the decades of work and the journeys that catechists and older children, six to twelve years old, have made with Jesus the True Vine. For parents, catechists, and those who seek to take seriously Jesus' challenge "to change and become like children" (Matthew 18:3), this book serves as an invitation to the same joyful journey.

Brothers and Sisters

Paul in the Liturgy

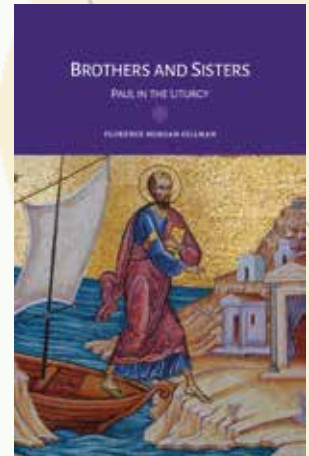

Florence Morgan Gillman

Brothers and Sisters: Paul in the Liturgy will enrich appreciation of Paul and offer a sharper lens through which to interpret his words proclaimed in the liturgy. These passages ground our faith in the beliefs and practices of the first followers of Christ and have shaped Christian life throughout the ages. Florence Morgan Gilman's exposition brings us Paul as an evangelizing man of action and introduces to us the coworkers, opponents, and communities that were part of his mission. Lectors, readers, and homilists will gain confidence and insight from this context of his sometimes-controversial legacy. This book invites them, and all who hear the Word, to bring Paul's passion for the Gospel to their ministry.

Preaching the Light of the Word

Enlivening the Scriptural Imagination

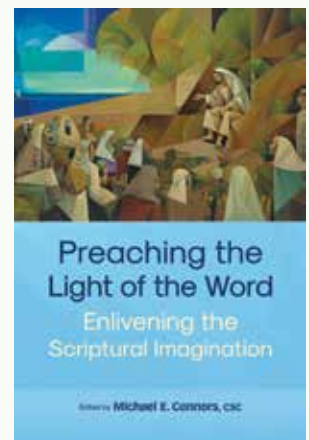

Edited by Michael E. Connors, CSC

"We come to know God through His story, through His wonderful works in the history of salvation" (Sacrosanctum concilium, 35.2). Effective preachers do more than retell this story—they make informed imaginative connections that help contemporary listeners engage with these ancient texts. In Preaching the Light of the Word: Enlivening the Scriptural Imagination, scholars and experienced preachers share their wisdom on how Scripture shapes and inspires preaching.

Featuring contributions from Fr. J. Michael Joncas, Rita Ferrone, Fr. Donald Senior, CP, Ann Garrido, Fr. Jude Siciliano, OP, and Michael E. Connors, CSC, this imaginative collection of essays will challenge the reader to discover how to bridge the chasm of years to find meaning for today in these ancient texts.

Nurturing the Whole Child

Montessori Principles Applied to the Catechesis of Children

Gianna Gobbi

In Nurturing the Whole Child: Montessori Principles Applied to the Catechesis of Children, Gianna Gobbi draws on a lifetime of experience to explain how Montessori principles are practically applied with children in the context of religious formation. This work is the fruit of entering gently and respectfully into the child's joyful encounter with the mystery of God's silent self-revelation made tangible through ancient biblical images, liturgical signs, and celebrations.

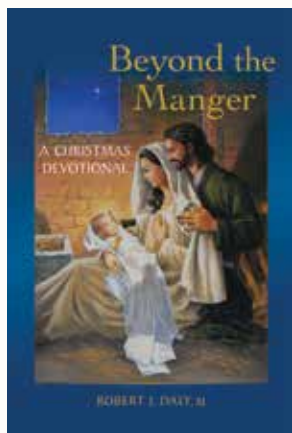

This book is an important addition to the CGS library and a valuable reference in the formation of catechists in CGS. Parents of young children attending the CGS atrium will also find this book an informative resource on the nature of children and their prayer life.

Beyond the Manger

A Christmas Devotional

Robert J. Daly, SJ

This Christmas devotional will help you enter into Christmas Time with fresh eyes and an open heart. It contains familiar stories from the Christmas season told in a new and engaging way. You will hear the imagined voices of well-known Christmas characters, including Mary and Joseph, the innkeeper, one of the Magi, and the voices of others who might have been present at the miraculous event of Jesus' birth or met him later in life.

Each story invites you to encounter the transformative power of Christ's presence, moving you beyond the manger and the familiar stories of Christmas Time into a spiritual oasis amid the hustle and bustle of the season. Starting on Christmas Day and lasting through the first weeks of January, this devotional can be used by individuals, in small faith-sharing groups, with teens, and with families with younger children.

Encountering the Real Presence of Christ

Jeanne Marie Miles

Belief in the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of the Eucharist has always been the heart of our Catholic faith. Participating at Mass and receiving the Lord's Body and Blood in holy Communion is the most important thing we do each week as Catholic Christians. Christ's presence is so great and wondrous that we encounter it in multiple ways. Based on the teachings of the Second Vatican Council, this booklet explores the many presences of Christ as experienced in the liturgy: in the gathered assembly, the minister, the proclaimed Word and, most especially, the Eucharist. This resource also reflects upon Christ's presence in the Body of Christ, the Church, called forth from the liturgy as a sign of his presence in the world.

Mary and the Liturgical Year

A Pastoral Resource

Katharine E. Harmon

In Mary and the Liturgical Year: A Pastoral Resource, liturgical scholar and professor Katharine E. Harmon offers an engaging survey of Mary's role in the Church's liturgical prayer from the first days of the early Church to our own day. In this unique resource, Harmon examines the twelve prominent Marian solemnities, feasts, and memorials celebrated throughout the liturgical year. Pastoral ministers, theology students, and persons seeking to reflect on Mary as a source of wisdom and faith will discover the riches of Marian theology and will come to understand how Mary always leads us to a deeper and more intimate relationship with her son, Jesus.

The Catholic Planning Calendar 2025

This 13-month tear-off planning calendar runs from the First Sunday of Advent until the last day of the civic calendar year. It is 22"×17" and can be used as a desk blotter or hung on the wall. Its easy-to-use format provides ample space for recording monthly plans and schedules, and it includes pertinent Roman Catholic liturgical information and secular holidays and observances. The liturgical days on this calendar are taken from the Liturgical Calendar for the Dioceses of the United States of America, published by the Secretariat of Divine Worship, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Celebrations proper to the dioceses of Canada have also been included. The Roman Catholic titles for each day are given, along with the citations of readings for Mass, the liturgical colors, and other Catholic observances, such as First Fridays and Catholic Schools Week.

Children's Daily Prayer 2024–2025

Jonathan F. Sullivan

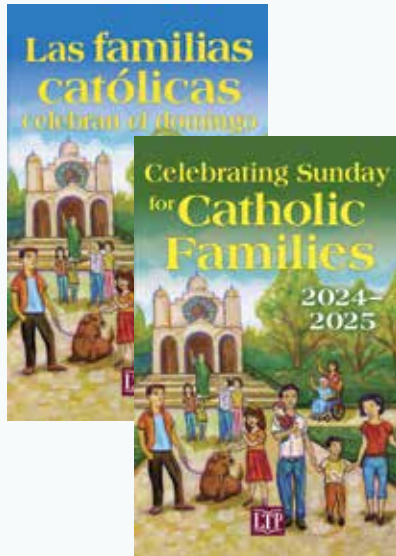

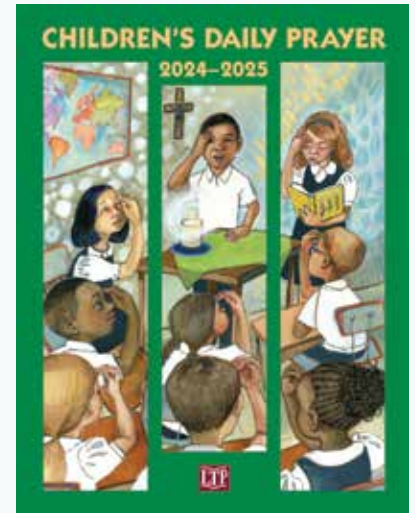

Throughout the history of the Church, Christians have consecrated time by pausing at various moments throughout the day to pray the Liturgy of the Hours (Guide for Celebrating Liturgy of the Hours). Children's Daily Prayer is a form of the Liturgy of the Hours adapted for children. It helps guide children in a daily service of communal prayer, following the pattern of the Church's Morning Prayer.

The heart of this annual resource is a simple order of prayer for each day and week that can be easily led by a child. Designed to fit seamlessly into your day, the entire prayer service takes no more than five to eight minutes. Daily Scripture texts have been carefully selected to help children "walk through the Bible" and become familiar with the great stories and themes of salvation history.

Keeping the Seasons for Lent and Easter 2024

Bilingual Print and Digital Resources for Your Parish

Cristina Castillo

Every parish wants to provide parishioners with rich and inspiring catechesis in attractive formats during Lent and Easter Time. Now you can do so economically with the beautifully illustrated and versatile reproducibles available from the resource’s website. The core of Keeping the Seasons is the 22 handouts, in English and Spanish, for Ash Wednesday and each week of Lent and Easter Time. On the front of each handout is a prayer, an illustration, and a reflection on the Sunday Scripture. On the back is catechesis for each weekday—about the day’s Scripture, saint, or relevant Catholic practices. The handouts, art, and text can be placed on your website, added to your parish bulletin, to worship aids, or to handouts of your own making.

Living Your Baptism in Lent

Weekly Reflections for Your Journey

Dennis Strach, csc

During Lent, the Church invites us to reflect on those times that we have turned away from God and consider how we can return to him in all we say and do. Living Your Baptism in Lent: Weekly Reflections for Your Journey helps readers respond to this invitation by reflecting on their relationship with God.

Through the grace of our Baptism, we have become sons and daughters of God. As such, we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit to reject sin and choose instead to follow God. Each week, readers consider this choice as they reflect on the questions asked before Baptism. These questions, or baptismal promises, shape our understanding of what it means to live a Christian life. Each week’s reflection ends with questions and Scripture passages to use in individual prayer. A guide for leading small groups in these reflections is also included.

My Sunday Mass Book

Receiving the Gift of the Eucharist

Kara O'Malley

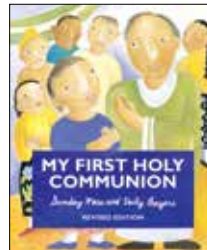

This book encourages children and their families to continue participating each Sunday at Mass with the same engagement as when they first received the Eucharist; for at the heart of the Mass, we receive the Body and Blood of Christ, the nourishment we need to go out into the world and do God's work. This book is a great gift for children preparing to receive first communion.

My First Holy Communion

Sunday Mass and Daily Prayers, Revised Edition

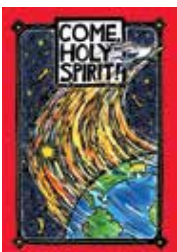

Melissa Musick Nussbaum

My First Holy Communion invites children to learn and to love the words we hear, pray, and sing at Mass each week.

From the Introductory Rites to the Concluding Rites, this book helps children to understand why we gather as a community on Sundays to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

“He now anoints you . . . so that you remain members of Christ, Priest, Prophet, and King”
(Order of Baptism of Children, 62).

As the season of Lent and Easter approaches, we as Catholics are called to reflect on our baptism and what it means to live out this sacrament. The Anointed series will assist the parish as they develop a deeper understanding of what it means to be a Church as they come together this Lent and Easter. The series not only helps parishioners understand the meaning of their baptism but shows parish leadership how to animate the priestly service of the faithful.

We hope this series will form and transform your parish community to live as priest, prophet, and king in the world today.
